Alamogordo Public Schools Names Principal of La Luz Elementary and High Rolls Elementary

Alamogordo Public Schools is pleased to announce that Mr. Michael Crabtree has been selected as the new principal of La Luz Elementary and High Rolls Elementary.

Michael earned his bachelor’s degree from Houston Baptist University in Houston, Texas, and his master’s degree in Administration from Concordia University Irvine.

Michael has thirteen years of teaching and coaching experience in both Texas and New Mexico. He has worked at Dumas ISD and Kermit ISD prior to serving in Alamogordo Public Schools beginning in 2015, where he worked at Alamogordo High School as a teacher and head baseball coach. Michael began his administrative career as an admin intern for the Alamogordo Public Schools in 2019-20.

Michael is married to Kassandra, a high school business education teacher, and has two daughters, Dakota, age 3 and Emalynn, age 2.

Michael is honored to be the next principal of La Luz Elementary and High Rolls Elementary. He looks forward to leading the campuses, believes that it is important for everyone to strive daily to grow and improve, and he states, “I envision maintaining and continuing to develop a positive culture for learning, engaging and focusing on our reason for school, which is student learning.”
Alamogordo Public Schools Names Principal
Of Academy Del Sol for 20-21 School Year

Kristie Eamello will serve in a dual role for the 2020-21 school year as both Federal Programs/Special Projects Coordinator, her current position, and as Principal of Academy Del Sol.

Kristie received her bachelor’s degree in Marketing from New Mexico State University and her master’s degree in Secondary Education from Grand Canyon University. She worked as a teacher/athletic director and financial consultant prior to arriving at Alamogordo Public Schools in 2004, where she has served as a grant project director, data instructional coach and testing coordinator before moving into her current position.

Kristie and her husband have one beautiful daughter, Tylie; two boys: Triston who serves in the US Air Force, and Taydon, a student at Buena Vista Elementary School, who loves football.

Kristie believes students need to be active participants in their learning, and they need timely feedback in order to improve. She envisions much collaboration with staff and parents as they work together to inspire students to learn and to help students acquire the skills necessary to pursue diverse opportunities and careers.
Alamogordo Public Schools Names Principal
Of Holloman Elementary School for 20-21 School Year

Rachell Lynn will be joining the Alamogordo school district in July as the new Principal of Holloman Elementary School.

Ms. Lynn is a distinguished educator with over fifteen years experience in education. Her dedication to student achievement has been a lifelong commitment. She started her educational career teaching kindergarten and has spent many years teaching students at the elementary school level. Ms. Lynn has been supporting students, families, and educational professionals in an administrative role for the past ten years. Most recently she held the position of Principal and Superintendent of Patagonia Public Schools in Arizona.

Ms. Lynn is an alumnus of Northern Arizona University with a bachelor’s degree in Elementary Education and a master’s degree in Early Childhood Education and Educational Leadership. She has successfully completed all the required course work to earn a Doctorate degree in Educational Leadership; Ms. Lynn is on track to finish her dissertation this coming winter.

Ms. Lynn is a transparent and collaborative leader with a growth mindset, she models humility and commitment to the field of education.